◇ 연주자님들 (Musicians) ◇

Pianist Yoahn Kwon, beginning his early piano studies from Juilliard Preparatory School, received bachelor's and master's degrees from Mannes College of Music. His further studies continued for four years with French maestro Anne Quepelec at the Paris Conservatory of Justice. Famous domestic and international record labels, including Sony Classical Label, special Chicago Tribune Radio album, and 9 piano solo, piano trio, and piano violin duo regular albums have been released so far.

Performance of almost all works for piano and violin, piano and viola, piano and cello
Received favorable reviews and was selected as a recommended performer and recommended album by media outlets such as the Chicago Tribune, New York Times, Monthly Audience, Monthly Review, and Monthly Audio.

He has performed solo, chamber music, and collaboratively at the world's leading performance venues, including Carnegie Hall, Seoul Arts Center, and Sejong Center for the Performing Arts. Invited chamber music performance with members of the New York Philharmonic, Chicago Symphony, London Philharmonic, and Yomiuri Nippon Symphony Orchestra.

As an educator for the past 15 years, I have had many famous students including Hans Eisler in Berlin, Stuttgart, Eastman, Peabody, New England Conservatory, Cleveland Institute of Music, Indiana University School of Music, Northwestern University School of Music, Yonsei University, Ewha Womans University, Korea National University of Arts, Seoul National University, and Manhattan School of Music. Mentor for music school admissions and active performers.

He is currently working as a music director for piano arrangements, organ performance, choral conducting, piano tuning and rebuilding, sound mastering and engineering, and VIP events at international art fairs in Korea and performance series planning at Vital Vibe.
